

PACIFIC PLAN IS SUSPICIOUS IS NOW APPROVED TO PAY HIGH PRICE

COURT MAKES BUT ONE CHANGE
IN THE DISSOLUTION
AS SUBMITTED.

NAMES SPECIAL COMMISSION IS TO KEEP AN EYE ON HIM

Southern Pacific Stock Must Be Completely Alienated From the Control of the Union Pacific.

St. Paul, June 30.—Federal Judges Walter H. Sanborn, Wm. C. Hook and Walter I. Smith, sitting as the district court of the United States for the district of Utah, approved late today plans agreed upon by the attorney general and attorneys for the Union Pacific Southern Pacific merger, known as the Harriman combine, practically ceased. The decree signed today will become effective with its filing in the federal court at Salt Lake City, which probably will take place next Wednesday or Thursday.

With the handing down of the final decree years of litigation came to an end, the first suit of the government to dissolve the merger having been filed at Salt Lake City in 1908.

The decision today came as a surprise. There was a brief hearing this morning, at which the government was represented by G. Carroll Todd, special assistant to the attorney general, and the road by N. H. Loomis and H. W. Clarke. The court then took the case under advisement. A number of times the judges called in attorneys for both sides to question them further, but there was no hint a decree would be given today.

Shortly before 4 o'clock Judge Sanborn, presiding, announced that the court had decided to enter a final decree approving the plan with only one important exception. The exception was the naming of Louis C. Knauth, of New York City as a commissioner of the court to see to it that the letter and spirit of the plan be carried out. The court also directed him to report to it from time to time.

The Plan in Brief.
In brief, the plan which has the approval of President Wilson, provides that the Union Pacific shall exchange $23,000,000 of its $126,000,000 holdings in the Southern Pacific for the Pennsylvania railroad's entire holdings in the Baltimore and Ohio—virtually an equal amount, that the remaining $8,000,000 shall be sold to the general public through the Central Trust company of New York; that no present stockholders in the Union Pacific, continuing as such, may buy any of the Southern Pacific stock as sold; that the transaction should begin November 1, 1913, and if not complete by January 1, 1914, the court should direct the disposition of any Southern Pacific stock remaining unsold.

By the decision today the court disregarded the desire of the attorney general that final decision be withheld for the interposing of objections by interested parties, to which portion of the attorney general's plan Mr. Loomis made objection at the hearing today as unfair to the road. The attorney general also had asked in this connection that there be publication of the plan, as in the American Tobacco company case, calling the attention of interested parties that objection might be made, but this also was overruled by the handing down of the decree of the court.

Dissolution Is Important.
"We deem a decree of dissolution more necessary at the present time than any other action," said Judge Sanborn after announcing the decree.

The government, however, in the plan approved by the court, expressly stipulated that should any illegal conditions arise from the exchange of stock, either under existing or future legislation, or future interpretation by the courts of present statutes, the government would have the right "freely to assail" the arrangement.

Mr. Loomis' Remarks.
In presenting the plan to the court today Mr. Loomis said:

"This is the third and amended plan for dissolution and is offered for previous plans. It differs from the others in the provision for the sale of $8,000,000 worth of stock through a trustee under direction of the court. It also provides a speedier method of securing the certificates of stock. By throwing restrictions about the use of the federal funds, this plan will make it possible to complete the dissolution by January 1, 1914."

Statement of McReynolds.
Attorney General McReynolds' statement to the court, commenting on this exchange of securities points out that at present the federal law forbids one railroad company from owning stock in another non-competitive line, but that by interpretation by the courts a different meaning may hereafter be given present statutes or new legislation covering that point may be enacted.

The president and his advisors feel that there is apparently no legal objection now to the proposal of the railroads under what the administration regards as an imperfect federal law. The advantages of the plan in the view of the president are that it breaks up two actual or threatened monopolies and at the same time fulfills the purpose of the government's present suit against the Harriman merger. The president and attorney general believe, moreover, that the federal authorities are left free to act as they deem right against any harmful or illegal consequences not now foreseen.

The attorney general in his statement to the court, pointed out that such a change obviously goes far to separate the Southern from the Union Pacific company and to that extent breaks up any particular unlawful combination between them.

"Moreover," continues the statement, "it divests the Pennsylvania railroad of a large amount of capital stock of an active competitor, the Baltimore and Ohio, and thereby removes."

ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS MAN CANNOT PAY $4,000 TAX AND PROFIT ON SOFT DRINKS.

IS TO KEEP AN EYE ON HIM

Directs Attention of Comptroller to Fact That Wholesalers Must Also Pay.

Austin, June 30.—The authorities of Cook county were advised by the attorney general that where a person applied to pay the $4,000 tax for the privilege of selling non-intoxicating malt drinks, it would be the duty of the proper officers to issue receipt, but the officers were also advised to look very carefully into the question as to whether or not the concern would violate the various provisions of the local option law. The attorney general expressed the opinion that it was absolutely impossible for a concern to prosper by the sale of non-intoxicating malt drinks and pay therefor $4,000 tax for the privilege. The department believes that the suggestion made by the attorney general is, that his department desires to be advised as to whether or not the receipt is issued, for he declares that with the co-operation of local officers he proposes to give all such concerns a very warm reception into their new enterprise.

Attention is called to the power to issue injunctions, restraining the sale of intoxicating liquor in local option territory, and a significant part of the suggestion made by the attorney general is, that his department desires to be advised as to whether or not the receipt is issued, for he declares that with the co-operation of local officers he proposes to give all such concerns a very warm reception into their new enterprise.

W. P. Lane, comptroller, was advised that article 7474 requires wholesalers as well as retailers to pay the occupation tax of $4,000 for the sale of non-intoxicating malt drinks. It makes no difference whether the drinks in question are sold by the manufacturer at wholesale or whether they are sold at retail. Parties desiring to engage in the business must first pay the tax of $4,000.

THE LOBBY PROBE IS TO BE DEEP AND EVERY MAN TO BE QUIZZED

Senate Committee Will Call All Who Can Throw Any Light on the Mulhall Charges. All Papers Are to Be Sent for.

Washington, June 30.—Investigation of lobbyists and lobbies by the senate will be reopened Wednesday with a number of prominent Wall street men as witnesses. Chairman Overman of the special committee declared today after a talk with President Wilson and informal conferences with his committee associates to renew activity at once instead of waiting until July 8, as he had planned.

Witnesses for Wednesday include Paul Cravath and Lewis Cass Leary, prominent New York attorneys, and David Lamar, a Wall street financier. The investigation will center about the charges made recently by Robert S. Lovett of the Union Pacific railroad that many New York financiers and lawyers had been approached over the telephone by the lobbyists and persons representing themselves to be members of congress.

Until this branch of the inquiry is disposed of the committee probably will not take up the more recent disclosures of Mr. Mulhall. Mulhall is under subpoena to appear July 8.

To Get the Documents.
Steps already have been taken by the committee to get possession of the letters and papers Mr. Mulhall preserved bearing upon his alleged operations as a lobbyist. Subpoenas were issued today for James A. Emery, who Mulhall described in his article as the "chief lobbyist" for the National Association of Manufacturers at Washington; for J. P. McMichael, former chief page of the house, whom Mulhall is reported as saying was in the employ of the manufacturers association and for a number of other persons named by Mulhall as having been active in the affairs of the association and in connection with efforts to influence legislation or to control elections to congress.

Members Demand It.
Demands from members of the house for a separate investigation of the Mulhall charges by a special committee of that body were made in many quarters today. Representative Sherley, named in the Mulhall article as one whose support was expected on certain legislation, declared the house should proceed at once with its own investigation. Resolutions are expected.

LAUTERBACH DENIES CHARGE.

Representing the accusation made in Washington against him by Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Union Pacific Railroad, that he had tried to force the Union Pacific to employ him as counsel in dissolution proceedings ordered by the Supreme Court under the alleged threat that Congress would interfere if he were not retained, Mr. Lauterbach asserts emphatically that he never approached any one connected with the Union Pacific to force him employment, as has been charged.

ROCKEFELLER STABLES BURN.

Loss by the Fire Will Be Fifty Thousand Dollars.

Tarrytown, N. J., June 30.—Fire tonight destroyed the stables on the estate of John D. Rockefeller at Pocantico Hills. The property loss was about $50,000. Mr. Rockefeller is in Cleveland. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came from his own estate a mile away and led the firemen in fighting the flames.

Saved from Lynching.

Pittsburg, June 30.—With a noose around his neck and members of a mob endeavoring to throw the end of the rope over a limb of a tree, Adolph Philbin, aged 40, a miner, was saved from being lynched today by the arrival of county detectives at Reading, near this city.

Philbin is accused of assaulting a 7-year-old girl.

Wilson Is Interested.

President Wilson talked briefly with Chairman Overman during a visit to the capitol this afternoon and expressed keen interest in developments. Earlier in the day the president informed callers at the white house that he believed the lobby investigation had fully served its purpose in disclosing the opposition that existed to certain features of the tariff bill.

Charges made by Mulhall are backed up, it is said, by thousands of letters, telegrams, circulars, expense statements and receipts supporting his statements as to the active part he took for ten years in trying to shape legislation in Washington in behalf of the National Association of Manufacturers. These documents the senate committee expects to get as official records.

Late today McMichael, the former chief page and now a capitol elevator operator, was taken into custody by Deputy Sergeant at Arms and taken before Chairman Overman. He was released on promise to appear when the committee meets July 8, but nominally he will remain in the custody of the sergeant at arms.

Mulhall's Startling Allegations.
Mulhall's startling allegations that representatives, senators and high officials of the government "had been reached" or "influenced," that the lobby conducted its operations from a room in the capitol, paid money to employees there, took an active hand in making up committees and went out actively in campaigns to defeat congressmen who opposed legislation the "lobby" wanted, have thrown congressional circles into an uproar.

Congressmen Issuing Statements.
Congressmen named in the Mulhall story are issuing statements denouncing the allegations as "malicious lies." Speaker Clark last night issued a statement confirming the charge that the "lobby" had worked for his defeat. Many congressmen mentioned, however, who feel that they have been

Veterans of Two Opposing Armies United Now in Sentiment and in Fact Strike Palms in Friendly Clasp

On Gettysburg Battlefield Brown Tents Shelter the Blue and Gray While Camp Fire Stories Are Told—Six Girls Who Were on the Streets of Gettysburg When Wheeler's Army Left, Come Now as Gray Haired Women to Sing Battle Song—Gen. Felix Robertson of Texas a Picturesque Figure.

Gettysburg, June 30.—Over the field of Gettysburg where the blue and the gray fought fifty years ago the soldiers of peace from the north and south, the east and the west trooped today to the tented city of Brown, where they will live during the four days of the semi-centennial celebration. It was an army united in sentiment and united in fact, for the blue linked arms with the gray. They marched the dusty road together from the village, they sat down at the same mess tables and they talked over the war tonight. If there was any rancor in any heart, any feeling of bitterness, it did not come to the surface and over the broad expanse of the city reunions of those who won and those who tried to win went on hour after hour.

Officials of the regular army in charge of the camp tonight estimated that nearly 15,000 veterans came in during the day, bringing the total close to 40,000, probably the greatest army that ever assembled on Gettysburg field after Lee and Meade left it to glory and to history.

Although the program of the celebration will not be taken up until tomorrow there was a reception today by survivors of Buford's division of Meade's army and Wheeler's division of Lee's. The meeting was held in the big tent set aside for speech-making, and began fifty years to the hour from the time when the first shot preceding the battle was fired. The gray cavalrymen who fought in skirmishes that led up to the three days' fight pledged themselves in the shadows of the stars and stripes to "forget" and their brothers in blue swore by the stars and bars that the fight was over for all time.

Rally Round the Flag.

There were several women from the village in the tent and old time school girls, gray-haired and aged now, sang "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," while the veterans wept like boys, but with pride. The six women who sang the battle song were among those who thronged the streets of Gettysburg after the advance guard of the blue and the gray left it fifty years ago. On that night, when Buford's men came riding into the village on the heels of Wheeler's men in gray, maidens strewed flowers along the streets and bells in the churches pealed out the news of the coming of the blue and the town went wild. Of all the scores of girls who welcomed the vanguard of Meade, only a half-dozen could be found and they stood, with tears in their eyes, on a platform in the big tent and sang to the weeping soldiers in the seats below.

"The afraid we can't sing like we sang fifty years ago," said the woman who acted as leader, as she led the way up the steps to the platform.

"We don't care," just sing again," shouted a veteran of an Illinois regiment rose to tell of an incident that happened on that other July night.

Bit of Purple Ribbon.
"As we rode through Gettysburg that last time," he said, "I remember a lit-

The Weather

With no showers yesterday, the mercury climbed up to its accustomed notch at 95 degrees, falling, however, in the evening.

Local Temperatures.
Local temperatures furnished by Dr. I. Block, voluntary weather observer, for the twenty-four hours ending yesterday at 7 p. m.: Maximum 95, minimum 71, barometer 29.93, humidity 70. Probably fair.

Washington Forecast.

Washington, June 30.—Forecast: East Texas—Local showers Tuesday; Wednesday, generally fair; light to moderate southeast to south winds. West Texas—Fair Tuesday and Wednesday. Louisiana—Local thunder showers Tuesday and Wednesday, except generally fair Wednesday in west portion; light south winds.

le girl stopped my horse and said she wanted to give me a bouquet. I got down and she pinned a ribbon—a little purple ribbon—to my coat. 'Wear that in the next battle you get into,' she said.

"We're not going to have any more battles around here," I told her. "Yes, you are," she insisted, "those hills back there are full of rebels."

"I were that purple ribbon through the battle. I never saw the girl after, warily, but I've kept that ribbon and it's back at home today."

The veteran looked slowly toward the platform to see if any of the women there had been the donor of that faded bit of ribbon, but no one nodded in answer and he sank into his seat with a sigh.

"I guess she's with the army above," he said.

"I guess she's with the army above," he said.

Four governors came to camp today. Governor McGovern of Wisconsin was the first arrival; Governor Tener of Pennsylvania was close on his heels and Governor Mann of Virginia, and McCleary of Kentucky, arrived later.

Salute for Gov. Mann.

As Governor Mann passed down the dusty street in the plain of Gettysburg field that the war department calls "Confederate Avenue," seventy-five veterans in gray lifted their hats and gave the rebel yell, while nearby a band burst into strains of Dixie.

General Sickles, the only corps commander of the union army on the field, was the center of attraction of hundreds of men in gray. He sat on the porch of the Rogers house on the field near the spot where he was shot and there stood handshaking.

Before the southerners left the Rogers house they shouldered the general, carried him out on to the battlefield and stood him up before the camera fire and moving picture machines.

Seven Gray-Haired Veterans.
While thousands of veterans of both sides are here, and other thousands are on their way to participate in the great anniversary encampment commemorating the battle of Gettysburg, there are gathering upon the quiet little street of the town seven gray-haired women who, fifty years ago, acted as volunteer nurses for the Union and Confederate veterans alike. Perhaps to no one of the seven are the recollections of that time more vivid than to Mrs. Salome M. Stewart, a native of Gettysburg, who, except for an interval of a few years, has lived in the same house that was used as an emergency hospital during the famous battle.

At Mrs. Stewart's home has been established the headquarters for the surviving nurses of the war between the states. One arrival yesterday was Mrs. Clarissa F. Dye of Philadelphia, who was among the first to respond when the news of Gettysburg filtered over the wires. The other aged nurses expected are Miss Cornelia Hancock, Philadelphia; Miss Margaret Hamilton, Wakefield, Mass.; Mrs. Mary Stevens, Peabody, Mass.; Mrs. Annie Irving, Newbury, N. Y., and Mrs. Helen Cole, Sheboygan Falls, Wis.

General Felix Robertson.
A picturesque personage who attracted much attention was General Felix H. Robertson of McLennan, Texas, who came to town clad in the full uniform of a Confederate general.

General Robertson, who is proud of the fact that he was at Fort Sumter when the first gun was fired, also declined to accept the offer of some Pennsylvania commission, which had provided a comfortable room for him in the dormitory of Pennsylvania college, saying that he preferred camp life with his men. This attitude was also assumed by General A. J. West of Atlanta, Ga., who bunked with his comrades on the battlefield.

Among those registered at the headquarters of the commission on the campus of Pennsylvania college are Governor Clarke of Iowa, General Tilton and Colonel Honan W. Allen of Vermont, Judge E. M. Gibson of Oakland, Cal.; E. L. Hawk, a commissioner from Sacramento, Cal.; F. W. Patterson of New Hampshire.

United States Senator Penrose arrived from Philadelphia late last night and will remain until Thursday, when he will leave for Erie to participate in the celebration of Commodore Perry's victory.

Colonel Charles H. McConnell is registered from Chicago. He has brought from that city a tent which will serve as headquarters for his own brigade and Pettigrew's North Carolina brigade. These brigades fought each other in the first day's battle. Colonel McConnell's tent is the only one in the camp not furnished by the government.

Other arrivals include Governor Hanna of Fargo, N. D., accompanied by three members of his staff, and General A. D. Williams of Florida, a distinguished Confederate officer.

BULGARS STOP PEACE PARLEY

OPEN AN ATTACK AT SALONIKI THAT REOPENS THE FRATRICIDAL STRIFE.

ALL BALKAN STATES

NOW INVOLVED IN THE WAR THAT IS IN PROGRESS.

GREEK FLEET ORDERED TO SEA

King Stars for Saloniki—Entire Frontier Is Under Arms and There Is Fighting at Every Point.

Belgrade, Serbia, June 30.—The Bulgarians this morning opened an attack on the Serbian troops along the whole line in Macedonia, according to dispatches from the Serbian headquarters.

The publication of the news created intense interest at the Serbian capital. The Serbian premier was addressing parliament in support of his policy of accepting arbitration offered by Russia when news of hostilities was sent in from the foreign office. Excitement in the house was so great that the sitting was suspended and the fate of the Ratchich cabinet remains undecided.

Opposition members demand guarantees that the territory held in Macedonia by Serbian troops shall be secured.

The Bulgarian troops opened their attack at 2 o'clock this morning on the Serbians' advanced outposts before Ispit and a couple of hours later their artillery was brought into action.

The Bulgarian attack gradually spread until there was fighting at Retna, Boukva, Zletovo, Neugasi and Valandovo.

EFFORTS OF POWERS FAIL.

Attack Occurs Just as Peace Was in Sight.

London, June 30.—The prolonged efforts of the powers to prevent the outbreak of a fratricidal war between the Balkan allies seem to have failed just at the moment when it appeared possible for the four premiers to meet at St. Petersburg and submit their differences for Russian arbitration.

Fighting began this morning all along the lines where the Bulgarian forces are facing the Serbians and Greeks.

"This is manifestly war without a previous declaration of hostilities and accordingly we are forced to order our division to advance," says the official statement.

The opposing armies accuse each other of initiating the offensive. Bulgarian representatives at Athens and Belgrade respectively have presented notes protesting against Greek and Serbian attacks. The Serbian government has replied by charging that the Bulgarians are making attacks and repudiating all responsibility.

In Sofia the outbreak of hostilities is attributed to machinations of the Servian military league, which it is contended is determined to prevent Premier Paschitch from consenting to arbitration and from a strategic point of view, the Bulgarians declare, the Servian attack is aimed at dividing the Bulgarian army at its center.

BULGARIANS GAINED TIME.

In Order to Complete Concentration of Forces.

Sa'nik, June 30.—(Thought here that the Bulgarian policy was directed at gaining time to complete concentration of forces and that a general attack commenced immediately this was achieved.) Outposts' movements in the Panghaion district and on the River Glavo were undertaken by the Bulgarians in an important strategic and tactical positions.

In accordance with instructions previously received, the Greeks who were greatly outnumbered, fell back on the Struma river before the Bulgarian attack and the whole Panghaion region, including the town of Enterli, has fallen into Bulgarian hands.

Thirty-six thousand Bulgarians attacked Guevgheli at 5 o'clock in the morning and defeated the Serbians. Railroad communication was cut. It is reported that a strong Greek force

SCANT THOUSAND OF FEDERAL ARMY TO TELL STORY

OJEDA'S COMMAND DECIMATED BY BULLETS, HUNGER, THIRST AND THORNS.

Nogales, June 30.—A scant 1,000 men straggled into Guaymas on June 25. Their tongues were swollen from thirst, their eyes bulging with delirium, their bodies wounded by cactus thorns and bullets. Leading them was Gen. Pedro Ojeda, commander of the federal forces in Sonora state.

Such was the result of a fortnight's fighting above Guaymas, as related in a belated message to the Associated Press received tonight from San Jose de Guaymas, a suburb of the gulf port. Ojeda led all that remained of the army of 3,500 men with which he had marched out of Guaymas to move against Hermosillo, the insurgent state capital.

The retreat proved more fatal than the protracted battle. Scattered along the route between Ortiz and Guaymas, the victorious state troops overtook stragglers from the federal ranks. Unable to proceed on the forced march, the sandal-footed soldiers had dropped by the roadside. Hundreds had died of hunger and thirst. Those still alive begged for assistance from the enemy.

Many of them were mute from swollen lips and blind from the desert sun. They begged for water with motions of the hands. Virtually all the federal artillery, the troop trains and hundreds of rifles were captured by the advancing state troops along the line of Ojeda's retreat.

Advices today differed as to the result of the recent fighting at Guaymas. State officials insist that the majority of the federal garrison has fled by back down the California coast and that the occupation of the town by constitutionalists is assured.

Postmaster Refuses to Resign His Office

San Francisco, June 30.—Postmaster Arthur G. Fisk of this city refused today to tender his resignation to Postmaster General Burleson in response to the latter's request that the resignation be forwarded immediately "to take effect as soon as a successor is appointed."

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram requesting my resignation," was the postmaster's reply. "I beg to inform you that I was appointed postmaster by President Taft and was confirmed by the United States senate for a definite term of four years. My term of office will expire June 14, 1916. You make no charges against me and can make none with propriety and justice. I therefore respectfully decline to tender my resignation."

Stefansson a Guest.

Seattle, Wn., June 30.—Vilheljalmar Stefansson, who will sail for Nome tomorrow to take charge of the Arctic exploring expedition under the auspices of the Canadian government, was the guest of College Club at luncheon today and made what he expects will be his last public address for nearly three and a half years.

Next Meeting Place.

Washington, June 30.—Choice of the next triennial convention city of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen now lies between Denver and Oakland, Cal., as the result of the balloting at today's session of the convention. A final ballot will be taken tomorrow.

Dozen Boys Are Drowned When Wooden Walk Gives Way

Lawrence, Mass., June 30.—A narrow wooden walk leading over fifteen feet of water to the municipal bathhouses in the Merrimack river today gave way under the stamping feet of a crowd of impatient boys and at least twelve of the little fellows were drowned. There may be more bodies in the stream.

The boys, ranging from 9 to 15, were waiting for the bathhouse keeper to open the door. No one knew tonight how many there were in the party, but it is thought that forty is a conservative estimate.

The boys were jumping up and down when the supports sank and the walk extension dropped like a trap door rolling the lads into the water.

There is a swift current at this point drawn by the falls a quarter of a mile below, and the youngsters were caught in the swirl.

Many of them could not swim. Witnesses on the bank said that all disappeared in a flash, but a moment later was a struggling mass on the surface. The stronger ones who could swim struck out for the bathhouse, and a score saved themselves. Their cries brought aid and several others were pulled ashore. Five unconscious boys were brought from the water and two of these finally were resuscitated. Efforts to restore the others were futile.

It was thought at first that only three were drowned and it was not until two hours later that the probable loss of life was realized. A boy in the crowd of distracted persons on shore missing his chum set up a cry, "I don't see Rollie. He must be drowned."

Boats and grappling irons were then brought and the river bed was dragged. When the work ceased late tonight twelve bodies had been recovered. Most of the youths were from the mill district. All the bodies recovered tonight were identified.

WHY PEOPLE ARE ILL

Comment of English Doctor—Back to Nature Move Stimulated by Vitalitas.

"Half the people of the world are sick and the other half are getting ready to be sick," according to a noted English physician.

He points out that this condition is particularly true in American cities both large and small. More than half the people have stomach troubles, rheumatism or nervous disorders. There are thirty thousand patent medicines on the market, nearly all more or less doped from which a large per cent of the sick select in hopes of getting relief. In general the doped remedies hasten more to the grave than they help.

As a last resort there is a constant stream of city sick turning back to Nature for relief. Some go into the country and try the simple life; others travel to distant medicated waters and drink of them for weeks.

The taboos of man-made medicines has been greatly stimulated by the recent discovery of the new earth liquid, Vitalitas. It is a wonderful product and every atom of it is produced by nature. It is free of any harmful ingredient and is so wonderfully adapted to revitalizing the human system that a child or delicate invalid may take it. No discovery of the age is so beneficial in a medicinal way. Vitalitas cleanses the system, eradicates toxic poisons and injects vital force into every weakened part and function of the body. It is guaranteed to relieve or cure all derangements of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood. See the display now in progress at the Powers-Kelly drug store and talk with the Vitalitas man. ### TO REST ON MAYFLOWER.

President Wilson Will Have Quiet Few Days.

Washington, June 30.—President Wilson will leave early tomorrow on a three days' trip aboard the Mayflower. The president had intended to take a much-needed rest by going to Cornish, N. H., to join his family at the mountain home that is to be the summer capital, but his decision to go to Gettysburg on July 4 upset all plans. A trip on the Mayflower was suggested by his physician and the president agreed to go on the condition that he would have complete rest.

No correspondents will be aboard and Mr. Wilson's only companion will be Dr. Cary T. Grayson. No salutes will be fired, no whistles will be tooted along the way, officers aboard the ship will refrain from extending the formal courtesies of the navy and so far as possible every effort will be made to give the president complete retirement. The president plans to return to the white house Thursday night and will leave for Gettysburg early Friday. After a brief inspection of the campus there and a short address he plans to go direct to Cornish to spend Saturday, Sunday and Monday with his family.

Open Air Reception.

The first open air reception of Baylor University, which have been a feature of the summer school for several years, was held last night with a brief program and the faculty on the receiving line.

Following the program the students and faculty mingled on the well lighted campus and spent the evening in old fashioned games. An abundance of punch was served as refreshments. The program consisted of readings. Miss Champion was honored for a second selection and Miss Jeanette Allen, popular as a Baylor reader, gave a number. Mr. Johnson gave a laughable reading with the title "Muskeeters and Aristocrats."

HEAT WAVE HAS TOLL OF LIFE

FORTY-SIX PERSONS IN CHICAGO ANSWER SUMMONS OF HIGH TEMPERATURE.

HOTTEST JUNE DAY IN HISTORY

Six-Day Sultry Period Does Not Break—Other Towns Report List of Fatalities.

DEATHS FROM HEAT.

Chicago	46
Milwaukee	13
Detroit	11
South Bend	5
Joliet	2
Cincinnati	2
St. Louis	2

Chicago, June 30.—Reports received up to a late hour tonight showed that at least 74 persons died today as a result of the heat wave in the central west.

The heat wave, which has continued uninterruptedly for six days, extended from Denver to Pittsburg and as far north as Lake Superior. Chicago, with a temperature of 102 degrees, was the hottest place in the United States except Tucson, Ariz., where the temperature was also 102.

Intense suffering was reported in all the large cities enveloped in the heat wave.

Forty-six persons are known to have died in Chicago alone today as a result of the intense heat. This number includes only the cases reported by the coroner and the police, and it is expected will be increased by reports of private physicians. Of these deaths, thirty-two were the direct result of heat strokes, five persons committed suicide as a result of heat and two deaths were of children seeking relief.

This was the hottest June day recorded in the city since the government records were first kept in 1872. Ninety-nine degrees was the official temperature, but the government thermometer on the street level showed a temperature of 102 degrees. The heat last night and today was not tempered by a breeze.

Six Days of Heat.
The record-breaking heat today was the culmination of a six-day period in which the thermometer dropped below 90 degrees only for a few hours in the early morning and for a time tonight. Up to the last twenty-four hours more than forty persons are known to have died as a result of the heat. More than 100 cases of heat prostrations were reported to the police today. Hospital ambulances handled as many more and all the hospitals in the city are filled tonight with those stricken in the streets.

Extra police crews were detailed to ambulance duty and patrol wagons as the regular ambulances were called into use to carry heat victims to their homes or to hospitals.

A special forecast issued tonight declared distinctly that the end of the heat wave was not in sight.

Seven more deaths were reported before midnight. Most of these were of persons who succumbed to the heat in the streets and died on the way to hospitals.

Eleven at Detroit.
Detroit, June 30.—Eleven deaths from heat and nearly a score of prostrations were reported in Detroit today. Of the dead three were adults and two were infants.

Officially the maximum temperature was 95 degrees, but the thermometer in the street kiosk registered 103.

At Grand Rapids 13 deaths and nearly fifty prostrations have occurred since Sunday morning.

Intense heat prevailed all over Lower Michigan today, deaths and prostrations being reported from several other points.

Thirteen at Milwaukee.
Milwaukee, June 30.—Thirteen deaths from heat in Wisconsin were reported today. There were scores of prostrations. In Milwaukee eighteen have died from heat in the last four days.

A rainstorm swept over the city late this afternoon and weather officials predict comfortable weather tomorrow.

Shortage of Ice.
Cincinnati, June 30.—Two deaths and a dozen prostrations resulted from the heat wave here today. The government street level thermometer registered 104 degrees. Shortage of ice, caused by a strike of ice house workers, added to the suffering.

Five Deaths in South Bend.

is surrounded by Bulgarians and in a critical position at Nigrita.

Occupy Important Point.
Sofia, June 30.—It is reported that the Bulgarians have occupied Guevgheli at the point of the bayonet. This is an important strategic position where the Greeks and Servian lines join.

It is understood that Bulgarian strategy aims to hinder co-operation between the Greek and Servian forces and to prevent Servian communication with Saloniki.

Greeks Demand Arms.
Athens, June 30.—The Greek government has ordered the Bulgarian troops at Saloniki to surrender their arms immediately. The grave step has been taken in consequence of the

CLERGYMAN FIGHTS HER CONFESSION.

An interesting case is before the court in Elizabeth, N. J. Rev. Willis S. MacRorie, pastor of the Springdale and Mount Horeb Methodist churches, is now being tried on charges preferred by Mrs. Amelia Nelson, mother of Miss Edith Nelson, the girl for whom the clergyman is accused of showing too much affection. Vigorous opposition was made by the defense to prevent the introduction in evidence of the written statement made by Miss Nelson at the trial. Mrs. Catherine Shaffer was one of the witnesses who declared the pastor was too attentive to the young girl, and Mrs. MacRorie testified an alibi for her.

Bulgarians attacking the Greeks along the whole line.

Without formally declaring war, the Greek government has decided to address a vigorous protest to the Bulgarian government.

No One Doubts War.

London, July 1.—The Times Belgrade correspondent sends the following: "Nobody here doubts that war has broken out and that Montenegro and Greece and probably Rumania also will support Servia."

"The Bulgarians have not committed any act which usually accompanies a decisive rupture. Save for official protests, communications have been severed between the two countries."

Use Machine Guns.

London, July 1.—A Saloniki dispatch to the Times says that on the refusal of the Bulgarians to surrender the Greeks placed two machine guns in the white tower and bombarded the Bulgarian quarters. After two hours of heavy firing the Bulgarians surrendered.

Perfect order is being maintained in the town.

Strike Is Averted.

Charleston, W. Va., June 30.—Miners and operators of the New River coal field late today ratified the terms agreed upon in conference here last week and the general strike of miners in that field, which was to become effective tomorrow, has been averted. About 20,000 miners are affected.

Fighting By the Greeks.

London, July 30.—An Athens dispatch to the Daily Telegraph reports that fighting took place at Saloniki between the Greeks and the Bulgarians, beginning at 7 o'clock in the evening. Finally the Bulgarian garrison surrendered and the town became quiet.

Greek Fleet to Sail.

Athens, Greece, June 30.—The Greek fleet was instructed today to sail forthwith to Tragles, a port near the gulf of Saloniki.

King Constantine of Greece started today for Saloniki.

Retaliate Only If Attacked.
Sofia, June 30.—Strict orders have been issued to the Bulgarians' army in case of operations to retaliate only if attacked by the Servians or the Greeks.

Mr. Sherriard, who had passed his 85th year, died at his home Sunday just before noon. He has lived in Texas for a great many years and was closely allied with the struggles of the New South after the civil war. He took an active part in the conflict as a member of Wirt Adam's brigade.

Surviving Mr. Sherriard are his wife and four children, two sons and two daughters, all of whom are grown. Two of the children live in Robinsonville.

Mrs. Rudella Woodall Everett.

Information was received in Waco yesterday of the death in the afternoon at Belton of Mrs. Leland Everett, aged about 19 years.

CITIZEN TURNS BANDIT.

Gets Nothing, Throws Down Rifle and Surrenders.

Cumberland, Tenn., June 30.—"Con" Barnes, 25 years old, a section hand, turned bandit today, according to his own confession, attempted to hold up the Cumberland City National bank, shot the cashier and when pursued by two citizens with nothing more formidable than stones for weapons, threw down his repeating rifle and automatic pistols and meekly surrendered. Incidentally his victim, Nixon Pickard, with a bullet through his right breast, and another through his arm, may die.

Barnes, heretofore a peaceable citizen, who has resided here several months, remarked when he was taken to jail at Dover:

"I wanted money and was bound to have it."

He secured nothing from the bank.

brought in without any specific charges against them, declare they will not be satisfied with the senate lobby committee's investigation alone, but will insist on a select committee of the house to sift the charges.

Will Name Select Committee.
The senate committee, however, intends to lose no time. A subpoena already served upon Mulhall is to be followed by others for the men named in the published statements. Chairman Overman believes that when his process serves get through they will spread a dragnet to bring in material for an investigation covering the last ten years' doings at the capitol at least.

Representative Sherley said that he proposed to ask the house on Wednesday to authorize an investigation of its own and would bring up the question as a matter of the highest privilege affecting the membership of the house. Chairman Henry of the rules committee declared that any resolution for investigation of the Mulhall charges referred to his committee undoubtedly would be acted upon immediately. He said he favored an investigation.

Discussing the Mulhall charges to-day President Wilson said he believed the lobby on tariff legislation had ceased to "embarrass anybody but itself."

When the president made his first declaration that a "numerous and insidious lobby" was operating in Washington he had no idea that such charges as made by Mulhall would be brought out, but he added he was in favor of investigating all charges and had no doubt the senate committee would have a free hand. The president told his callers the accusations in the Mulhall statement had been called to his attention just before his publication. It was learned today that Senator Overman's attention also had been called to a portion of the charges.

John Kirby Is Summoned.

John Kirby Jr. of Dayton, Ohio, former president of the National Association of Manufacturers, who is in San Francisco, was asked by telegraph tonight to appear before the committee on July 8, or as soon thereafter as possible. The committee also telegraphed David M. Parry of Indianapolis, a former president of the association, asking him to testify.

POPE MAKES REPLY.

Says Mulhall Was Not Employed for Such Purposes.

New York, June 30.—In a statement issued tonight George Pope, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, replied to the charges made by Martin M. Mulhall in reference to the political activities of the association. The charges deserve attention, the statement said, and "we shall endeavor to see to it that not only the subject matter of these charges, but the whole field of matters relating to so-called labor legislation at Washington shall receive the fullest investigation and publicity, for the subject is one of the most vital and important now before the American public."

"During his connection with the association, Mr. Mulhall was continuously promoting, as has since been learned, the New York private and personal matters of his own, and assumed to represent it without authority and it was the inquiries and activities of this kind on his part, coupled with other serious betrayals of trust, that were responsible for his dismissal by the association."

Continuing, the statement declares that the National Association of Manufacturers has never in any way used money to oppose child labor or compulsory education laws or other laws to better the condition of the working man, as set forth in the Mulhall statement.

Chief among the laws proposed by labor unions and opposed by the association, the statement cites the amendment adopted at the present session of congress to the sundry civil bill prohibiting the use of money appropriated to the department of justice to prosecute farmers' organizations and labor unions under the Sherman anti-trust act. This association, says the statement, has opposed such legislation and will continue to do so with every legitimate resource at its command.

"In conclusion," the statement says, "the association can only ask and believe that every fair-minded man will await the facts brought out by official inquiry and that in reading the so-called disclosures of Mr. Mulhall, he will remember that political activity can be for legitimate and proper purposes as well as for corrupt and improper ones."

Watson Says It Is a Lie.

Rushville, Ind., June 30.—A "wicked, diabolical lie," was the way Former Congressman James E. Watson characterized the statement by Martin M. Mulhall that Watson drank six cocktails in Mulhall's room in a hotel in Indianapolis during the campaign of 1908.

"That statement," said Mr. Watson, "practically carries with it its own refutation. He (Mulhall) says he got six cocktails in his room at one time and they modestly withdrew while I drank them all. That statement is a wicked, diabolical lie."

Mr. Watson reiterated that he had been employed only by the National Association of Manufacturers to further the movement of the tariff commission at the extra session of congress in 1909 and that his connection with the association ceased with the adjournment of the special session.

Speaking of Mulhall's trip to Indiana during Watson's campaign for Governor, Mr. Watson said Mulhall told him that he had had considerable experience in organizing working men for political purposes and Watson said he would be glad to have the benefit of his experience along that line.

"I was very anxious to take advantage," said Mr. Watson, "of any honorable aid I could obtain in my race for the governorship, and I was willing to avail myself of any knowledge or experience he (Mulhall) had along the line of organization; but it is not true that either he or his association financed me personally or my campaign in general in the year 1905."

Taft Declines to Comment.

New Haven, Conn., June 30.—Former President Taft today declined to discuss the lobby charges made by Martin M. Mulhall, except to send word through his secretary that he regarded the statement as one of those muck-racking attacks that men occupying public offices are subject to.

FOR MRS. MANUEL ALONSO

It was quite in keeping with the country club idea that Mrs. A. W. Koch should place such a wealth of field sunflowers in the Huaco club rooms as a special emphasis that she was expecting guests. These guests were twenty matron friends bidden to enjoy bridge and to meet Mrs. Manuel Alonso of Guatemala City, Guatemala. This courtesy was the result of a meeting while Mr. and Mrs. Koch were making the interesting visit to Central America. Following still further the summer idea, two garden parlors were selected as the game parlors, and a set of hemstitched handkerchiefs for the guest of honor. The cooling cup with plate dainties was the luncheon feature. The favors were won by the Mesdames James D. Williamson and H. K. Brewer.

SOMETHING WORTH WHILE

FOR WEAK LUNG PATIENT

In the east is the national society for the promotion of tuberculosis prevention. This is authoritative, and it is to this society that the annual Christmas sale of Red Cross stamps goes. Every week the society issues a bulletin. Sometimes it is statistics as to what the different states are doing for their consumptives. Sometimes it is hints as to what should be done. Again, it is an appeal to the churches to preach the gospel of health. And so on. These bulletins are both informing and educational. The last which reached the writer on Monday deals with the "fake" cures for patients threatened with tuberculosis. After exposing the several methods by which the "fakists" make $50,000 annually out of afflicted men and women, this is said, and every woman should heed it well: "No specific cure for tuberculosis has been discovered except the well-tried method of fresh air, rest and good food."

OUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

IN LINE OF PROGRESS

The writer is in receipt of a letter from the north in which the suggestion comes that the Waco public library secure a set of studies in water color, oil and china painting, and have folios made for use just as books are borrowed. It is with pardonable pride that the answer will go that Waco has begun this idea. It is true that the Euterpan fraternity made it possible for the library to provide a very creditable collection of famous pictures. These are loaned for study clubs.

But the idea does linger that the Art league could make this the work of another winter—that of supplementing the pictures of famous masters by these water color sketches and portraits of china decoration. What a boon this would be to the art teachers and classes, and is it not directly in line with the purpose of the Art league? Suppose Mrs. Newman, the incoming president, and her coworkers give this a thought? Many young girls right in our midst are groping along with undeveloped talent, and perhaps have not the means for instruction; also young girls, yet in school, have not the time for systematic art study, but with the desire to employ leisure hours with art home study. The benefit from a cultural standpoint fulfills the exact cause for the being of the Art league, the promotion of the artistic in this community.

NOTES FROM ROTAN COTTAGE

INTEREST HOME FRIENDS

From her summer home at Gloster, Massachusetts, Mrs. Edward Rotan writes in a private letter several notes of personal interest to friends here. These concern the several daughters, all of whom retain an abiding interest in their girlhood home and home circle.

Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Rotan's sister, who is active in the Texas club of New York city, has just spent a week with Mrs. Rotan. Mrs. Gallagher left Austin to reside permanently in New York, where her son, Lanham Mc-

Call, has frequently sung for the Texas club.

Mrs. Thorndyke Howe is now in her handsome new cottage at Gloster, adjoining the Rotan cottage.

Mrs. Winthrop Sargent and Winthrop the Third are just about arriving from Pennsylvania for a visit to Mrs. Rotan.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Peterson have left New York city for a summer home which they have leased on one of the islands off the coast of Maine. Miss Fredrick Peterson, who is just entering the debutante age, will entertain numerous house parties from New York during the season. The home is beautifully situated in grounds of more than twenty acres. Both land and water pleasures are available.

But that which is of greatest interest concerns Mrs. Cecil Drinker, formerly Miss Katherine Rotan. In the account of the awards from the State University of Pennsylvania, a medical department, where Mr. Drinker has been a student, he is in the lead. He takes the first award for the best account of a case occurring in the university hospital; he receives the alumni prize for the highest general average in his examinations; he receives the cash prize for the best examination for his degree, doctor of medicine, and he receives a fourth prize for greatest proficiency in clinics. Is not this a record?

Mrs. Rotan speaks of the open fire and the generally exhilarating climate around her summer home, and refers to the Fourth of July bombs as sounding the opening of the Gloster season. Mrs. James Baker of Houston, formerly Miss Alice Graham of this city, is a fellow cottager each season at Gloster. These two Texas matrons gather about them many known to social life in this city.

THE QUESTIONABLE SKIRT

WHAT WILL WE DO WITH IT?

Mrs. Cullen Cooper, in remarking upon the skirts that impress most during the journey in the east, speaks first of all concerning this skirt craze. She has referred to one which the wearer displayed all her physical charm from ankle to knee, not only in the slit but in the history of contrasted colors which she wore. The skirt was a very narrow affair, in her very interesting travel letter, referred to the bus man telling the woman who climbed the steps, "Legs ain't no show to me." Now, is it not a sad state of affairs when women, just as the skirts which we call fashion, submit themselves to such unfavorable scrutiny and comment? On the other hand, we have pictures of two leading women of the world, the queen of England and the empress of Germany, who say avowedly that their courts shall not adopt the slit skirt. Mrs. Wilson has sent out the bulletin that no slit skirts will find their way to the white house. Surely when three women at the head of the three greatest nations cast a ban the sensible women all over the land can afford to follow.

The national dressmakers' assembly had almost a tie vote as to whether or not the slit should continue to prevail. The result was a majority to say that it shall. These same dressmakers voted that skirts should become even more narrow at hem, but that there should be a loosening of the strain about the hips. Women are compelled to walk. If they are hobbled, when they must elevate the skirt to give the necessary freedom of motion. When they elevate they expose their person. Does any fashion excuse this? In the ballroom it is impossible to the woman to dance unless her skirt is elevated. Some of the results are a violation of decency.

What makes a fashion? Only this—public demand. What the women wear the modistes make. The time was when the skirts were really a burden to carry, so wide were they. These brought the cry of extravagance. Now they say that actually some of the milks in the east are upon the verge of bankruptcy owing to the scantiness with which women use their clothes. Is there not the happy medium? Cannot the tall, slender woman wear a skirt to suit the becomingness of her figure, with the short, fleshy woman wear her own original cut? Then we will reach the perfection in dress, which is, the becomingness of style to wearer. Why not women be sensible, study what is suitable to the individual, perfect it, and appear to the best advantage? If the women can ever come to this, there will be no hobbles, no slits, none of these abortive departures called fashion.

Society Notes.

While work is continuous upon the Castle, Mrs. Alfred Abeel does not expect to become its matron sooner than the autumn.

A dealer in New York city reports 300,000 flags sold in New York city alone for the Fourth of July. Wonder how many will be sold in Waco? Judging from the demonstration on National Flag Day, there will be precious few. Let's redeem ourselves.

Mrs. W. F. Barclay of Colcord avenue has been confined at home by illness for some time.

Mrs. Nell Jurney Pape has written that business will call Mr. Pape home earlier, than had been expected, so that they are with this week sailing homeward from their tour of Europe for three months. They go direct to Dallas.

Mrs. Lorraine Rogers, now of Temple, was a passing visitor here within the last few days. She was on her way for a visit to relatives in Kentucky. Owing to her greatly improved condition, Mrs. Pearl Lovelace of Speight street has cancelled her passage which was engaged for New York city and the coast of Maine. Mrs. Stegal, however, who was to have been her companion, will take the trip, with the water route through the Great Lakes added.

Miss Olive Halbert, who attended the Baraca convention in Nashville, is again in Texas. She is making a visit to her sister, Mrs. Louis Graham, in Houston, with no date named for her homecoming.

Miss Betty Cassady having had her visit to Kentucky is now in Chicago pursuing her musical study. She will be absent until September.

Already gossip over the fall weddings is quickening. Next it will be in order to forecast the debutante prospect. And right here we will say that the Waco young men have never shown the respect due the debutante.

In other Texas cities these newcomers into society are the toast of the new season, until the holidays at least. Here the presidents of the social clubs do not even honor their presence by dancing with them. By all means this welcome into the club should be formally given.

It is noted that the Austin Avenue Missionary society is meeting only once a month during midsummer. This is on the third Friday of each month. July. Mrs. R. S. Lazenby by special invitation, will for August

PREACHERS HELP IN POLICE RAID

S. A. SMITH AND I. S. BOYLES
LEAD OFFICERS TO NORTH SECOND.

ARREST OF SEVENTEEN WOMEN

Beer Is Confiscated—Colloquy Between Dr. Barton and Chief of Police Barron.

A cordon of fifteen men surrounding them, five of whom are either ministers or have connection with the church or Anti-Saloon league, seventeen women of North Second street were marched to the city police station this morning at 1 o'clock, where they were placed in the charge of Police Chief Hollis Barron. For the most part, the women were proprietresses of the various houses from which they came.

Following the turning over of the women to the city following went on their bonds in sums of $100 each: W. A. Humphrey, Sam Reid, Ray Crotty, W. L. Eastham. Each was ordered to appear at the police court this morning. S. A. Smith, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, and Superintendent I. S. Boyles of the Downtown Mission, who have worked up the vice crusade, have not decided whether complaints will be issued for their trial in this court, or whether they shall be transferred to the county.

Liquor Law Violations.
It is understood that charges of violating the liquor law will be preferred against all, where there is proof, and many of the women last night admitted having sold liquor in their houses. When the officers, preachers and saloon men marched into the station they carried with them a tub full of unopened beer bottles that had been confiscated and a sack full of more "joy" water.

The women, seventeen in all, of which fourteen were white, the others negroes, each testified before the officers, the testimony being taken down by Dr. A. J. Barton. Dr. Barton did not take part in the raid, but was a spectator, having heard what was in progress. He acted as clerk at the request of the officers. Many of them openly admitted that they had been selling beer, and occasionally when one denied that she had been selling, either Boyles or Smith would speak up:

"Why, I was in your house on such and such a date and purchased a bottle of beer." They declared that the beer that they had purchased had been sold for a dollar a bottle. They would taste the contents they

It is one thing to make soda crackers that are occasionally good.

It is quite another thing to make them so that they are always better than all other soda crackers, always of unvarying goodness.

said, giving the rest to the girls to drink.

In each case the woman "wilted," and in police language "came straight."

Notified to Stop Selling.
Some of them testified that last Saturday, after the recent anti-saloon league meeting, they were notified by Officers Shepherd and Huff that no more beer must be sold. A few intimated that they had sold after this warning.

When Chief Barron came to the station shortly after midnight at the request of Night Chief Prater, he was asked to come into the office where the examination was being held.

Asked if he could give the women accommodations in the city jail, he replied that he could not, quarters being limited to a single bed.

Puts It Up to Chief.
"Now, Chief Barron," said Dr. Barton, "this investigation has been going on for the last three months. Mr. Namara rather challenged my statement in the paper the other day, called that ex-parte hearing, and it looks like some one tried to get me up a tree. Well, I am not accustomed to climbing saplings. Here we have the evidence and confessions of these women that they have been violating the liquor laws."

Barron Ready to Help.
"Your statement of violation is the first that I have known of it in an official manner, except that made by the Morning News," said Chief Barron. "We appreciate your help in this manner; for a policeman to apprehend the sale of liquor in these places is difficult, they are known. We have been and are ready to work with you."

"The police commissioner told me after I came back from Galveston what had been done, and that Huff and Shepherd had been detailed to make a visit to these places, see if there were violations and to order sale, if any, stopped."

"You have been very frank, chief," Dr. Barton returned, "and I am going to be frank with you. Do you know it is not my duty to go into this matter, but that of the police? Did you know of selling?"

Did Not Know of Selling.
"No, sir, I did not, except what I have told you. I did not have money to make a complete investigation of the way it should be done."

Routing Deputy Sheriff Joe Roberts out of bed, the "probers" asked that the women be transferred to the county jail. The deputy firmly refused, saying that he had no warrants. For a time the conversation was tinged with blue.

The arrangement with the city was then made. No sooner said the charges be written, than bond would be furnished.

The Raiding Party.
The probers declare that they have much more evidence than that given this morning. They say they can give shell-proof evidence of numerous violations. The work was begun in March by Superintendent Smith of the Anti-Saloon league, and was closely seconded by Dr. Boyles of the Downtown Mission.

Unless the alleged sale is discontinued, they declare that the work will go on.
Participating in the arrest were: Superintendent S. A. Smith of the Anti-Saloon league, Superintendent I. S. Boyles of the Downtown Mission, C. M. Collier, deacon of the Pinok church; J. J. Creed, pastor East Waco Methodist; J. W. Hester, city sprinkling department; J. Q. Chadwick, student of Baylor; I. W. Rogers, student of Baylor; W. M. Oliver, farmer; the following policemen and detectives assisted: Bob Buchanan, Sol Frazier, H. S. Head, George Rotan, Eugene Donovan.

Seven Persons Are Burned to Death

New York, June 30.—Bodies of seven persons, lodgers in a small hotel known as "Till" Hotel at 66 Greenwich street, were taken from the top floor after a fire in the building tonight. One of the bodies is that of a woman and another of a three-year-old child. None has been identified. A dozen injured were taken to hospitals.

The fire started on the third floor of the building, a three-story brick structure. The two upper floors used as headquarters for an employment agency, also was a combination hotel for laborers and about 25 persons were sleeping there when the alarm was given.

A general scramble toward the street followed. Those near the windows leaped or climbed down fire escapes. Six of the victims were trapped on the top floor, while the seventh, a woman, died in a hospital. Two of the bodies later were identified as Mrs. Mary Davis and her daughter, Minnie, 11 years old.

The bodies found later in the building were badly charred.

According to the firemen, the fire was of incendiary origin and an investigation has been instigated.

No Testimony Is Taken.
Houston, June 30.—No testimony was taken today in the state's $100,000,000 penalty and ouster suit against the Standard Oil company and its alleged subsidiaries. A brief meeting was held before Commissioner Roby at which a meeting was arranged for adjournment was taken to 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. According to District Attorney Maury the main witnesses to be examined here are J. Q. Tabor, manager of the southern division of the Magnolia company; Assistant Manager W. W. Renner and W. C. Denniston, so-called "chief of scouts."

It was stated today that the hearings here would hardly extend over two or three days.

Gets Life Sentence.

Mexico, Mo., June 30.—John Nicholson of Vandalia, today pleaded guilty in court here today to murdering his wife, Bertie Nicholson, and their 9-year-old adopted son, Horace, by pouring oil over them while they slept and setting fire to their bed clothing. Nicholson was sentenced to life imprisonment and taken to the penitentiary tonight, just ten days after the tragedy. Testimony brought out that Nicholson, infatuated with his adopted daughter, Bessie, sought to do away with his wife and get the $1000 life insurance she carried.

SALOONS CLOSE 9:30

TAKE NO CHANCES ON THE
TIME LAW TAKES EFFECT.

General Agreement to Meet Every Condition and Every Door Was Shut at the Minute.

Taking no chances on the construction of the law and the time when it goes into effect, the saloons of Waco last night began operation under the 9:30 o'clock closing law.

An inspection of the saloons was made after 9:30 and it was found that the general agreement among the saloon men to close had been followed. Although it is announced that the law is not in effect until today, with all other laws passed by the Thirty-third legislature, the saloon men did not care to risk their licenses for a few hours' business. They will open at 6 o'clock this morning.

Say Law Effective at Midnight.

Anstin, June 30.—The 9:30 o'clock bill as passed by the Thirty-third legislature and approved by the governor, goes into effect at midnight tonight, thereby allowing the saloon keepers to keep open tonight, contrary to the general belief. The governor when asked about the effectiveness of the bill, stated that it was to go into effect ninety days after the date of adjournment of the legislature, which was 12:30 noon of April 1. This would make the law effective at 12:01 Tuesday. Comptroller Lane has answered several telegrams requesting the date of effectiveness of the law to the effect that the law was effective noon today. He states, however, that he believed the legislature to have adjourned on March 31. First Assistant Attorney General C. M. Cureton stated today that the law would be in effect the first minute of the first day, making the law effective tonight at midnight.

PACIFICS PLAN IS APPROVED

dies a highly objectionable condition. Should the exchange be made, the Union Pacific railroad would then own 38.66 per cent of the capital stock of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company and the Pennsylvania railroad company would own 14 per cent of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific.

Non-Competitive Lines.
It is further set forth that the lines of the Pennsylvania system appear to be non-competitive with those of the Southern Pacific system and the lines of the Union Pacific system non-competitive with those of the Baltimore and Ohio system. And also that the Pennsylvania lines and the Southern Pacific line do not connect so as to form a continuous route, nor do those of the Union Pacific and the Baltimore and Ohio.

In proposing the sale of the $88,000,000 Southern Pacific remaining to the Union Pacific after the proposed exchange of securities with the Pennsylvania, the attorney general's statement sets forth that the stock is to be transferred to a trust company which shall become a party to the proceedings, and, in effect, an agent of the court. The trustee has no power to vote the shares except when directed by the court. Union Pacific stockholders will be entitled to subscribe for certificates of interest issued by the trust company, representing the shares in its custody. But the holders will have no voting right and will receive no dividends until their certificates are converted into a stock of the southern Pacific company and such conversion can only be made upon affidavit that the applicant owns no shares of the Union Pacific railroad company and is not acting for or in behalf of any stockholder thereof, or in concert of agreement or understanding with any other person, firm or corporation for the control of the Southern Pacific company in the interest of the Union Pacific railroad, but in his own behalf in good faith.

History of the Suit.

When the suit of the government to dissolve the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific merger was filed in the federal circuit court for the district of Utah in 1908, the circuit court for the eighth district was composed of Judge Willis Van Devanter, now on the supreme bench; Walter H. Sanborn, St. Paul, and William C. Hook,

How to Make Your Hair Beautiful

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works
Wonders, Stops Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple old-fashioned home recipe consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (de composee), and a little Menthol Crystals. These three mixed at home in a few minutes' work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 ozs. Bay Rum and 1-2 dr. Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in an 8 oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again, rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use and you cannot find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your scalp as tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear and itching cease. In ten days you will find downy new hairs sprouting up all over your scalp, and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity. Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its result. (Adv.)

Witnesses were examined in all parts of the United States, the evidence was submitted to the circuit court and in October, 1910, the case was argued in St. Paul.

Went to Supreme Court.

On June 24, 1911, a majority of the court decided that the case of the government was not sustained, but Judge Hook filed a dissenting opinion, holding that the merger of the two railroad systems was a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. The government appealed the case to the supreme court from the decision of the circuit court, and on Dec. 1, 1912, the supreme court handed down a decree reversing the decree of the lower court, upholding in the main the dissenting opinion of Judge Hook and sending the case back to the federal court for the district of Utah for an enforcement of the decree dissolving the merger.

Between the time of the filing of the original suit and the decree of the supreme court congress had abolished the circuit court and assigned their jurisdiction to the district courts providing for the circuit judges who constitute the circuit court also should sit as district judges. It is under this law that the circuit judges in this case sat as the district court of Utah.

Point of Disagreement.

The principal point upon which the government and railroad representatives were unable to agree was the disposal of Union Pacific holdings of Southern Pacific stock amounting to $6,000,000.

On April 21, 1913, representatives of the Union Pacific made application to Judges Sanborn, Hook and Smith at St. Paul for an extension of time within which to present a plan of dissolution. The judges recommended to the supreme court that such an extension be granted and shortly afterward the supreme court placed as a time limit July 1, 1913.

On June 12, 1913, two dissolution plans were presented to a hearing in St. Paul.

Objections were made to the plans in part, but out of the suggestion made there that Southern Pacific stock be traded for Pennsylvania holdings of the Baltimore & Ohio, came the plan agreed to today.

Avoids Former Mistakes.

Washington, June 30.—Scarcely had publicity been given to the government-approved plan for dissolution before comment was heard upon its reflection of the attitude of Attorney General McReynolds toward the "trusts."

It was generally recognized that the plan marked a distinct departure in the dissolution of offending corporations under the Sherman anti-trust law. Particularly was the plan compared with the Standard Oil and Tobacco dissolution decrees.

Supporters of the administration pointed out that the plan avoided the mistakes of the former dissolution decrees in that it made it impossible for the stockholders to exert the restraints on trade forbidden to the corporation. In the Standard Oil and Tobacco decrees they said, the stockholders were left free to hold stock in the rival corporations, which succeeded the parent corporation, thus affecting a dissolution only in name and that what the offending corporation did before the decree, the stockholders have been doing since the decree. It was declared that the difficulty of the stockholders acting in unison has not been sufficient to bring about competition among the subsidiary companies.

Judge Lovett Is Satisfied.

New York, June 30.—Judge Lovett, chairman of the Union Pacific, expressed his gratification tonight at approval of the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific dissolution plan by the federal court in St. Paul.

"Just one question now remains to be settled," he added, "namely, the time and terms at which the Southern Pacific certificates are to be offered. This matter will be taken up by the Union Pacific executive committee at an early date."

The chairman refused to discuss the matter of the Southern Pacific's ownership of Central Pacific on the ground it is a question in which the Union Pacific "has no direct interest." Judge Lovett will sail tomorrow for Europe.

Attend the Great Cotton Convention Dallas, July 10-11

It is expected that many thousands of people from all parts of the South who are concerned in a better system for MARKET AND SALE OF COTTON will be in attendance at this convention.

The most vital and important question before the people of the South today is a system for the market of cotton that will bring to the producer the profit that his toil deserves.

This system has been fully worked out by the Southern States Cotton Corporation, and in the acid test of thorough and critical trial it has not been found wanting, because it has already afforded relief to thousands of farmers.

In other words, there is no element of experiment in it. You have only to become identified with the movement—contract your cotton to the Southern States Cotton Corporation and receive in full measure its benefits, which means simply FIFTEEN CENTS FOR COTTON—and nothing less.

DECIDE TODAY TO ATTEND THE SECOND GREAT CONVENTION and get the facts—first hand.

During the fresh fruit season there is always an unusual amount of bowel disorder. To avoid the distress and inconvenience a very simple treatment will usually be sufficient if taken promptly.

First, cleanse the bowels by a good cathartic, such as Penslar Liver Saline or Ricin-Oil (tasteless castor oil) which removes the fermenting, irritating material from the bowels. Then a few doses of

REORGANIZING THE CUSTOMS

Machinery to Be Completely Changed and Heavy Pay Is Cut Out.

Washington, June 30.—The machinery by which the government collects $300,000,000 in tariff duties will be revolutionized tomorrow by the most drastic reorganization of the customs service ever attempted. By a sweeping consolidation the number of customs districts grown to 162 during the nation's history, has been reduced to 49 and 113 collectors of customs lost their positions.

Officials estimate that the reorganization will result in annual savings of between $400,000 and $500,000 in the cost of collecting the duties. Because of ambiguous phraseology in the law authorizing the reform, officials still are unable to determine whether Congress contemplated a saving of $500,000 or $700,000 by the reorganization.

Collectors of customs on the Canadian border, who for years have enjoyed perquisites from the sale of manifests and other customs to importers, aggregating it is said, at least $20,000 annually, will be deprived of this gratuity by the reorganization. These collectors will receive only their salaries ranging from $3,500 to $6,000 a year. These perquisites, it is declared, in some instances, netted collectors $20,000 annually. The government in the future will sell the blanks at one cent each or permit importers to furnish their own form.

TRY IT! SAYS SAGE TEA DARKENS AND BEAUTIFIES FADED, GRAY HAIR

Mixed With Sulphur Makes Hair Soft and Luxuriant and Removes Dandruff.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is coming in vogue again, says a well-known downtown druggist. It was our grandmothers' treatment and hundreds of women and men, too, are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," for about 50 cents a bottle. It is the most popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply dampen a soft brush or sponge with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application it is restored to its natural color.

What delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that besides beautifully darkening the hair, they say it produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. Here, you gray-haired folks, get busy: look years younger.

UP AGAINST A SNAG

TANGLE IN THE INCOME TAX SECTION OF THE TARIFF BILL.

Effort Is Made to Add Dependents, Cripples and Imbeciles to the Exemption Clause.

Washington, June 30.—Democrats of the senate ran against a snag late today when they took up the report of the finance committee majority on the income tax section of the tariff bill, and at adjournment tonight no progress had been made and no one would predict when or where the apparent difficulties would be.

The caucus took up the income tax report paragraph by paragraph and when the exemption clause was reached, everybody wanted to talk at once. Some senators argued against the committee amendment reducing the general exemption from $4,000 to $2,000 with $1,000 additional for married women or women with dependents and $500 each for dependent children. This opened the way for countless suggestions.

Some senators declared there should be no differentiation between single and married persons; others argued that if exemptions were to be made on minor children dependent upon a parent's income, that dependent grand-children should be included; that imbeciles, cripples, invalids, aged relatives and countless others who might be classed as dependents, should be included.

Omission in Printed Bill.

Discussion of this paragraph revealed an error in the caucus print of the bill authorized by the committee. Originally the committee decided that exemptions for children at $500 each should not exceed two children or $1,000 extra to the family, which would make the maximum exemption $5,000. When the committee revision of the bill was printed, the limit on children's exemptions was omitted. When this was discovered Senator Simmons informed the caucus that the omission was unintentional and that the committee had intended to limit the amount to $1,000.

Debate developed into considerable of an editorial scramble. Senator Simmons taking the floor just before the evening recess to declare emphatically that the caucus should either vote to limit the exemptions as far as dependents were concerned, to a specific number of dependent minor children or to allow out altogether any exemption for dependent children. To let down the bars for grand-children, dependent cripples, adults and others, he insisted, would be to enter into a never ending realm of discussion and to get into the field of impracticability.

As Approved by Caucus.

The action of the caucus came in the midst of a lively debate which earlier had threatened to be prolonged, there being wide difference in opinion expressed as to the amount of the income exemption. As approved by the caucus the senate finance committee amendment stands exempting incomes of $3,000 for single persons, with $1,000 additional for a married man or woman or taxable income and $500 for each dependent minor child not to exceed two. After many suggestions to extend the exemptions for dependents upon a family the Democrats finally concluded that they were getting into deep water and agreed to the change which reduced the normal exemptions as proposed in the house bill from $4,000 to $3,000. The action of the caucus in striking out the mutual insurance committee amendment was agreed upon just before adjournment and is to be reconsidered.

Senator Pomerene tonight made the motion to strike out the amendment and it was carried by a vote of 13 to 11.

Will Be Considered Again.

Because the caucus was so slimly attended members of the committee thought the matter ought to be submitted to a full senate membership and Senator Lewis of Illinois moved to reconsider the matter. It will be taken up again tomorrow. Settlement of the income tax section will complete the entire tariff bill with the exception of a few amendments which the committee has under consideration. The prospect now is that the caucus will get through tomorrow night and that the bill will be reported to the senate next week.

Completes Free List.

Before taking up the income tax the caucus completed the free list with the exception of the provisions relating to paintings and other works of art, which were referred back to the committee for further consideration.

An amendment by Senator Pomerene to put a countervailing duty of 5 per cent on agricultural implements and one by Senator Chamberlain for a countervailing duty on lumber were voted down by a large majority.

Senator Thornton of Louisiana proposed an amendment to levy a 15 per cent duty on raw cotton, the long staple Egyptian cotton being the target. This aroused considerable debate, but it was voted down overwhelmingly.

Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois submitted to the finance committee majority tonight an amendment proposing general countervailing duties in lieu of the anti-dumping clause which was stricken from the Underwood bill. The committee has not yet considered it.

ORDER OF PILGRIMS

PROMINENT LODGE OF NEGROES IS IN SESSION NOW IN WACO.

Thirty-First Annual Conclave—S. N. McDonald of Groesbeck Is Supreme Worthy Shepherd.

The Supreme Lodge of the Ancient Order of Pilgrims, founded in the year 1882 by H. C. This order was first instituted with a mere handful of Pilgrims, but today it stands in the foremost ranks with the fraternal institutions known by the negroes.

Among those who are paying their obedience and traveling from Edin to Ararat are the supreme worthy shepherd, Prof. S. N. McDonald of Groesbeck, who has made wonderful strides as a Pilgrim; Prof. J. DeGaulty, Houston; L. D. Dickson, Spring, Texas; Prof. Jesse Washington Emerson of Huntsville; W. C. Conway, Houston, and many other Pilgrims.

At the grand opening with Dr. Smith master of ceremonies, the grand lodge took seats upon the rostrum and there was a song by the choir, "Blessed Be the One That Binds," and an invocation.

After an anthem by the choir there was a welcome address by J. C. Russell, professor of Paul Quinn college. The answer to the welcome address was by Van H. McKinney.

look any opportunities during the reunion. They have arranged for quarters near the big tent, where the principal addresses are to be held. They expected to attack the veterans from every side.

Relatives of General Meade, General Longstreet, General Pickett and General Hill arrived today. Colonel J. M. Schoonmaker, chairman of the Pennsylvania commission, announced today that thirty-five governors had accepted invitations to be present some time during the week.

Brigadier-General Hunter Liggett assumed command of the veterans' camp today. General Liggett appointed as his adjutant, Lieutenant Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr., son of the Confederate general.

President Wilson will go by train to Gettysburg on July 4. Immediately after delivery of his address he plans to go to Cornish, N. H., to spend Saturday and Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Longstreet Only Woman.

Of the thousands who came in today, probably half were from Dixie, and tents south of Confederate avenue, many of which were unfilled before, testified with Mrs. General Bennett H. Young of Louisville, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, came late today and became the guest of the Pennsylvania state commission.

Mrs. Helen Longstreet, widow of General Longstreet and the only woman in the camp, was given a tent tonight by Brigadier-General Hunter Liggett.

Edgar R. Blesley, a veteran residing at Wauwatosa, Wis., was found dead in his tent tonight. This brings the death list to three.

A picturesque figure was the arrival of Stonewall Jackson of Virginia, veterans headed by Chew, who was General Stonewall Jackson's chief aide. They carried their original battleflags. Less than one hundred survivors were in line, but their appearance in the streets of Gettysburg aroused unbounded enthusiasm.

This would give time for the scraping of about thirty-six customers, and the distance traveled by the razor would be 5,400 inches, or 150 yards.

The number of customers shaved per week will be about 196. Allow a fortnight for the summer holiday, and you have a total of 3,920 customers a year, with a razor stroke distance of 1,470,000 inches, which is equal to twenty-three miles 353 yards and one foot!

Further investigation revealed the fact that when the statistician shaved himself about 696 strokes are required to produce a result equal to that obtained by the barber with his 236.

By G. D. Wilson.

It took a jinx to break a jinx yesterday at Katy Park. For the last few months Cliff Hill has been accumulating thirteen straight victories out in the Copper league around El Paso. His unlucky string looked awfully scary to line up against a club that casts an evil spell over the Navigators every time they clash, but the left-handed youngster walked out and took a death grip on the hypnotizing Pirates and held them to one lone hit. In desperation Carson sent the youngster against Galveston, which has ever been a thorn in the side of the Waco club. Cliff Hill was the one thing needed, it seemed, to remove the thorn and it is hoped the job has been done forever. Hill made his debut a history-making event, and he won a place in the hearts of the local fans that will endure through several losses. He is young, which is in his favor. After Hill had routed the jinx by holding them to one lone safety and winning the game 1 to 0 the Skippers got behind Pitcher Jack Ashton in the second contest and hammered out runs enough off Pitchers Roberts and Dodd to have won several games. The youngsters wound up 13 to 2 after the Pirates themselves hurried things along to get the misery over. They quit playing in the seventh inning, and the game became a farce.

Cliff Hill displayed everything yesterday that could well be desired, except perfect control. He walked eight men and hit one, but his wildness failed to get him into any trouble, and he was exceptionally clear of holes throughout. He has the best slow ball seen here in years. He put something on the ball yesterday that made the batters do everything but hit safely. The hit made off his delivery was made by Hopkins and it was a two-bagger. The nearest thing to a hit besides this was when Cliff Hill pitched to Hill in the third inning. Madden was on first as a result of a walk and Hill threw to second to catch Madden, but the play was too late, both men being safe. They were counted safe on a fielder's choice. Hopkins was thrown out at third by Reilly after he hit.

Reilly did great pegging yesterday, preventing steals so often that attempting to swipe bases became unpopular with the Galveston players. With one man out in the second inning Yardley won the game for Waco when his two-bagger brought in Beck. Beck got on by being hit by Hiett. Hiett threw wild to third to catch Beck and he continued on in. Yardley made a good effort to score on Hopkins' throw in. Beck's fly, but he was tagged out at the plate by Wilson. In the second game Galveston scored both her runs in the first inning. Madden set on through Wohlleben's miff of a pop-up. Prierson hit, Maag hit, and Madden and Prierson scored on attempts to throw them out at the plate on grounders off the bats of Williams and Massey. The locals looked as if they were up in the air, but they settled down and held the visitors' runless afterward.

The third inning was the one that threw the visitors off their balance, and they never recovered from the shock. Ashton hit, Duguey hit and McLaurin walked. Crichlow walked and Rennard's two-bagger scored the three runners. Dodd was sent in to replace Roberts. Wohlleben's two-bagger scored Rennard, Beck hit and Wohlleben continued on in home on Jordan's wild throw to third. Beck went out at third and Yardley fanned. Waco took another fall out of the visitors in the fifth. With one out, Wohlleben singled, Beck was safe on Dodd's error. Yardley was safe on a fielder's choice when Williams threw the ball away and Wohlleben scored. Reilly was hit hard in the back by a pitched ball and was given first, Ashton's hit scored Beck and Yardley. Duguey's hit scored Reilly. McLaurin flew out. Crichlow walked and Rennard's hit scored Ashton and Duguey. Wohlleben singled, Rennard singled and Beck's hit scored Crichlow. Reilly's hit scored Rennard, but Beck was caught at third making three outs.

Beaumont 7-9, Austin 1-10.
Austin, June 30.—Only eighteen batters faced. Ducky Swan in the first inning of today's first game and only one runner got to third base and Swan was hit safely three times, two of them being scratches, thus shutting out Austin by a 7 to 0 score. In the second encounter, given Lewis swallowed a chew of tobacco and came very near losing for Austin, but the Senators finally won out in the seasaw contest, 10 to 9.

Taylor was hit hard in the first game and was inclined to be wild. In addition he was given poor support in the pinches. Dobard was the star with the bat, getting three singles. On the other hand Swan was invincible. Up to the end of the third Lewis had the Oilers at his mercy and was going good when he suddenly retired and later came back and finished the inning and then gave way for McCuller, who was wild and was pounded hard. Larson was sent in the beginning of the ninth and pitched good ball. A great stop by Brannard prevented Beaumont from scoring. Two runs after two were down in the last round. Glaze's men played rotten ball in the last contest, even more so than Austin, and she made six errors.

Houston 3-1, Fort Worth 0-2.

Fort Worth, June 30.—Fort Worth and Houston split a double header, the visitors winning the first game 3 to 0, and the Panthers the second 2 to 1. The locals were helpless before Ware in the first game. After Davis had doubled in the fourth inning, Houston split even in the fifth, allowing the runner to score with the Buffaloes' first score. In the fifth inning Davis was banished from the game for "back talk" to Umpire Matthews. The Morris men sewed up the second contest in the first inning, when they took two on an error, Ebenli singled, scoring, Maloney and McAvoy. Nolly's wild throw to the plate allowed the Buffaloes to score their only run in the seventh.

M'Graw Knocked Down By Pitcher For Philadelphia

Philadelphia, June 30.—Manager John M'Graw of the New York National League baseball club was knocked down by Pitcher Brennan of the Philadelphia National League club after today's contest between the two teams.

The New York manager was walking across the field talking with another Philadelphia player. Nearly all the spectators had left the grounds. Suddenly Brennan sprang toward him, and M'Graw dropped before he could see who had hit him. Later he declared that he must have been kicked, but other players who had quickly pulled Brennan away declare only two blows were struck. M'Graw soon recovered.

Brennan declares he was exasperated beyond the limit of endurance by taunts directed during the game by the New York manager at members of the local team.

Masterson Offers to Purchase Railroad From the State

Austin, June 30.—At the meeting of the penitentiary investigating committee today A. E. Masterson of Houston offered to purchase the Brazoria and Clemens state farm railroad from the state for $40,000, and to extend it seven miles to Freeport on the gulf. It is already seven miles in length.

He also offered the state 800 acres of land inclosed in the Clemens farm at $50 per acre and 2,500 acres adjoining the Ramsey farm at $40 per acre. Other offers were made by various land owners and taken under consideration.

His new delivery, called the dry spit-ball, is still in the experimental class, but he expects to spring it on the big league soon.

IN COTTON MARKET

QUIET, BUT PRICES EASE OFF IN LATE TRADING ON WAR RUMORS.

Friday and Saturday Being Holidays, Operators Are Evening up Pending Report.

New York, June 30.—The cotton market was quiet today but prices eased off rather sharply in the late trading on rumors that war had broken out between Greece and Bulgaria over the disputes in the Balkans. The close was easy from 6 to 12 points net lower.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 points to a decline of 5 points, near months being influenced by over Sunday charge orders while later deliveries reflected disappointing cables and a favorable weather map.

July eased off right after the call under scattering liquidations which was said to have been influenced by the circulation of additional notices estimated at 3,000 bales, and that position soon sold at a net loss of 13 points. Later deliveries meanwhile worked off to a net decline of 6 or 7 points but as soon as scattered offerings of July had been absorbed the whole list stood on scattered covering.

This demand may have been inspired by increasing complaints of boll weevil, or reports that further substantial shipments were to be made from the local stock to Liverpool, but the buying was not aggressive and after a rally to within 3 or 4 points of Saturday's closing figures, the market hesitated.

Unfavorable political advices from Europe inspired increased pressure later when all the active months sold under the low point of the morning and closed at practically the lowest point of the day.

Friday and Saturday of this week being holidays, trading seemed to be quite largely in the way of evening up accounts pending the government report and the three days' adjournment.

Detailed weather reports showed rain in the southwest where they were considered beneficial. It is claimed that ocean freight rates have been engaged for 26,000 bales for shipment from New York during July.

New Orleans, June 30.—The cotton market was steady and active during the early trading today, but in the afternoon the market weakened on disquieting rumors concerning the Russian political situation. In the closing of the day traders who have been heavy buyers of July were spoken of as sellers of that month and at times considerable liquidation of the long interest was in evidence.

The opening was steady at a decline of 2 to 4 points on poor cables and a good weather map. Before the middle of the morning the decline was widened to 6 to 9 points on the rains over the belt noted in the detailed weather reports for Saturday and on the forecast of more showery weather. It was generally accepted that these rains had relieved the drought that has been complained of for the time being at least. Toward the middle of the day scalping shorts took their profits and buying from this source caused a recovery.

At the highest trading months were 1 point up to 2 points down, compared with the final figures of Saturday.

In the afternoon the market broke rather sharply to a level 13 to 15 points under Saturday's last quotations. The close was steady at a net loss of 13 to 15 points.

IN THE GRAIN MARKET

GENERAL RAINS AND COOLER WEATHER HAD BEARISH EFFECT ON WHEAT.

Corn Turns Heavy on Scattered Rains and Better Crop Reports. Oats Flighly.

Chicago, June 30.—General rains and cooler weather in the Dakotas, with prospects that Minnesota would be equally favored, had a bearish effect on wheat today. The market closed nervous at a decline of ¼c to ½c to 1½c@1½c net. Corn showed a loss of ¼c to 1c from Saturday and oats a fall of ¼c@½c to ¾c. In provisions the outcome was an uptick of ½c to 7½c.

Wheat was weak, with July sagging more than other months. Most of the pressure on July came in a hedging way against purchases of new wheat. About the only important rally resulted from an expert's opinion that South Dakota would not yield more than one-half a crop at best. The effect was decidedly bearish. The final tone was unsteady. Stocks here and in the visible supply did not decrease as had been expected. Clearances of wheat and flour today equalled 155,000 bush.

Corn turned heavy on account of scattered rains and better crop reports. There also was a big increase in the amount shown to be in store here and at other leading points. The decline in the Harriman stocks fitted in with the general tendency of the market which was dull and heavy. The release of $120,000,000 July interest money has thus far exercised little effect on the money market. Dullness of today's trading indicated that the investors were still keeping out of the market.

Bonds irregular; total sales, par value, $1,288,000.

United States 4s coupon declined ¼c, the registered 3s, the Panama 2s, ¼c on call.

LIVESTOCK.

Fort Worth.

Port Worth, June 30.—In view of the heavy rains reported in the southern portion of Texas last week and Sunday receipts of cattle here Monday were about as liberal as could be expected, the count being close to 4,000 head, with 1,400 calves included.

General market conditions were good. No over supply was seen in any one department, and the usual array of buyers were in the bidding. Beef steers sold on a fully steady basis at a range of $6.75 to $7.25. Stocker steers of a good sort were steady at $5.75@6.50, but common steers as well as stocker cows were slow and lower. Butcher cows and heifers were slow, but sales were made on a basis that was in line with last week's close. Choice cows sold at $6.00. Bulls steady, $4.50@5.50; calves steady to 25c lower at $4.50@7.25.

Four quarts was featured in the hog yards where a supply of 1,000 head sold within an hour at rates that were a nickel higher. Three cars were good enough to bring $8.85, the day's top, and other sales were around $8.65@8.75. Four buyers were in action.

The number of births in Germany exceeds the deaths by 800,000 annually, while in France the excess is only 40,000.

IN THE STOCK MARKET

HARRIMAN DISSOLUTION ORDER WAS THE SINGLE FEATURE OF THE DAY.

View of the Future as Expressed by Attorney General Does Not Help Stocks.

New York, June 30.—Presentation in the court at St. Paul of the Harriman dissolution was the one development of a stock market day which was otherwise featureless. The plan contained no surprise, its essential features having been known for some time, but the Harriman stock slumped and the whole list sold off on the news from St. Paul although the market rose strongly on Saturday when it was announced that the plan had been agreed on with the sanction of President Wilson. The explanation given by the traders of the market's action was the statement by the attorney general. His intimation that he favored prohibition of ownership of stock of one railroad by another and his recommendations that the court approve the plan subject to an order which would not permit stockholders under the plan from becoming defendants in any further suit were points used as a basis for selling stocks.

Union Pacific responded the more readily to pressure because of the connection which apparently was largely to covering. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific both sold down 3. The decline in the Harriman stocks fitted in with the general tendency of the market which was dull and heavy. The release of $120,000,000 July interest money has thus far exercised little effect on the money market. Dullness of today's trading indicated that the investors were still keeping out of the market.

AMONG WHOLESALERS

BETWEEN SEASONS PERIOD IS NOW ON AND BUSINESS MEN ARE TAKING VACATIONS.

Home-Grown Watermelons, Cantaloupes and Other Truck Are In Evidence.

Generally speaking, business was very quiet in all lines yesterday. Virtually the last day of the month, the principal activity was among the clerical force, getting balances, making out statements and otherwise getting a line on what has been done during June.

Intimations are that the month will show a better business in all lines over June, 1912.

This is the period between seasons, when nobody does much business—in fact, when nobody wants to do very much. Vacations are in order. Produce dealers are taking a rest, both because they feel like it and because they have to. Very little is to be had from elsewhere and local patches and gardens are supplying the main demand.

Already home grown watermelons have appeared on the public square, and will likely be plentiful and cheap. Peaches are offered by dealers at $1.00 per four-basket crate.

Texas tomatoes—good ones, too—are selling at $1.00 per crate.

Milam county cantaloupes are offered at $2.00 per basket of 45's.

In the grain and feed line, on the public square, purchasers are offering shelled oats at 35c per bushel. Alfalfa at 55c per bale.

Baled oats at 40c@45c per bale. Johnson grass and other hays at 10c per bale.

A few locally raised peaches of rather inferior grade were offered at 50c per bushel, but not in sufficient quantity to cut any figure. The present stock of East Texas peaches to be had are good stuff, but limited.

It will probably be a month before the Elberta crop is thrown on the market, and until then good peaches will be hard to get.

Among the out-of-town merchants visiting the various wholesale merchants of the city yesterday were:

Waco Drug Co.—L. V. Holbert of Bremond, Hal Clark of the F. Smith Co. at McGregor and Thomas Penick of Stamford.

McLendon Hardware Co.—H. L. Snell of the Snell Hardware Co. at Moody, W. W. Henry of Star, L. Short of Flat, J. H. Kirby of Battle, C. M. Wemple of McCombs, C. D. Phillips of Hico and Joe Muller of Hallsburg.

Herrick Hardware Co.—John Day of Rotan, Tom Penick of the Hughes Hardware Co. at Stamford, C. D. Phillips of Hico, Mr. Weidner of Guda, Will Jones of Jones Bros. at Mooresville, W. E. Cooper of Hewitt, O. E. Forster of Florida, Gus Gudarian of Guda and Mr. Dimard of Mooresville.

Messrs. Gudarian and Dimard both rode home in brand new automobiles. Sanger Bros.—S. T. Kinslow of Kinslow & Reed at Oakley, E. B. Johnson of H. J. Johnson & Son at West, Ben Keen of West and Dave Gelman of Bremond.

Lot 5 of A. Mars addition, $420.

We also have 231 acres adjoining the above tract, well improved, having one new 4-room house, one 5-room house and two negro houses, blacksmith shop, two large barns, deep well and water works. This is all the very best land and lies nearly level. We have a bargain price on this farm and she is going to go. We also have 108 acres adjoining this tract, which makes 339 acres in a solid body. This is certainly a good proposition, one that presents itself but once in a lifetime. Act today, not tomorrow. For price and terms write J. T. Williams Realty Co., Frisco, Tex.

PETROLIA OIL FIELD. If you want to become interested in a bona fide oil company who will not misrepresent anything, but will give you a square deal all the time, read this:

We have just secured, by a lucky turn, 160 acres of prime oil land in the Petrolia oil field. Oil has been found on this land in paying quantities and we are willing to guarantee oil in paying quantities before claiming your money. We will begin to drill the first of the forty (40) wells which we have agreed to put down on this tract, within the next 10 days. We expect to be producing oil in paying quantities within 90 days and if we do not do so, we ask no money. In addition to the 40 wells we have agreed to drill on our 160 acres at Petrolia, we are now drilling a deep well for oil on Pumpkin Ridge about 5 miles north of Petrolia, Clay county, Texas, where we own and control 3.811 acres. We will sell you a lot 20x30 feet near our drilling well and will give you an interest in the 3.811 acres, as well as an interest in the 40 wells to be put down on our 160 acres at Petrolia. You may pay $4 cash, balance in 30, 60 and 90 days. We will return cash deposit at the end of 90 days if we haven't struck oil in paying quantities on our land. We take all risk, we feel certain of success. Act quickly. God helps those who help themselves. Applications for no less than three shares taken. Cash pay ment $7.50. Can use good agents.

TO TEST ALASKA COALS.

If It Proves All Right, Means Development of Field.

Washington, June 30.—Dr. Jos. A. Holmes, director of the federal bureau of mines, left today for Seattle, Wash., to take personal charge of the expedition which is to sail from that city July 5 for Alaska to get a thousand tons of coal from the Matanuska field to be tested by the navy.

Arriving at Knik, in the south central part of Alaska, the party will proceed by pack train sixty miles to Chickaloon, in the vicinity of the coal fields. It is expected that the desired quantity of coal will be obtained by fall. It will be taken over the ice next winter to tide water and given a thorough test on the cruiser Maryland, now in Alaskan waters.

Eight hundred tons of coal taken from the Behring river field a year ago is at Stillwater and will be taken down the Behring river within the next two months. This coal also will be tested on the Maryland.

If the tests meet the rigid requirements of the navy it is believed it will mean the immediate opening of Alaska coal fields and the general development of that territory.

Call for Postal Bonds.

Washington, June 30.—A check for $1,118,880 today was transmitted to the treasurer of the United States by Postmaster General Burleson in payment of small savings bonds to that amount which had been applied for by postal savings bank depositors. Nearly nine-tenths of the bonds were requested in registered form, indicating that the purchasers desired them as a permanent investment.

ITALIAN RURAL LIFE*AMERICAN COMMISSION IS MAKING EXAMINATION OF EUROPEAN SYSTEMS.

Banks Lend Money on Character—Cooperation Fertilizer Factory is Flourishing.

Vienna, Austria, June 30.—Some most interesting phases of Italian rural life have been investigated by the American Commission on Agricultural Organization, Co-operation and Rural Credits, now traveling in Europe to examine the various systems in use on this side of the Atlantic.

At Cremona, Italy, the commissioners inspected the People's bank, which is more or less the mainstay of the rural population. This bank was excellently housed and was said to be in an extremely flourishing condition. From the appearance of the building connected with the institution this was easy to believe. The bank is not truly co-operative in principle but is, properly speaking, a joint stock company depending on larger commercial institutions. It departs particularly from the co-operative ideal in so far as the number of votes held by the members is dependent on the shares they possess. On the other hand it may be called a people's bank in so far as the object kept in mind by the directors is not primarily to make profits, but to insure the betterment of the circumstances of the local population, who are themselves the shareholders. It may be called a rural bank for the reason that it will lend money by preference, and at a favorable rate, to those engaged in agricultural pursuits. The director explained that the bank acted in this way because agriculture was considered the main industry on which depended the welfare not only of the neighborhood, but of the whole nation.

Lending on Character.

The bank was willing to lend on any reasonable security, collateral, land or otherwise, the latter practically amounting to lending on character. The rate of interest remains almost always below 5 per cent, and the director scouted the idea of any serious trouble arising between the bank and its clients or shareholders.

The working of the Cremona bank seems to be guaranteed to some extent by the flourishing Central Banca di Roma, and ultimately by the approval and watchful eye of the government, but it cannot be said to be subsidized or aided by the state. The expenses are largely met, not by the altruism of the officials, most of whom give their services gratuitously or at an almost nominal wage—a principle regarded with suspicion by many members of the American commission, and stigmatized by some as a suicidal policy.

One of the chief functions of this bank is to make advances to facilitate the work of the Co-operative Society of Local Farmers, having for its object the improvement in agriculture and the encouragement of modern methods on the part of its members. Membership may be had on easy terms and carries with it the right to buy from the society, fertilizer, machinery, etc., at practically cost price. For this purpose the credit of the bank is called into play.

Co-Operation Fertilizer Factory. Another institution visited by the commissioners was the Cremona Fertilizer factory, also co-operative, and apparently very flourishing. The phosphates manufactured here are sold exclusively to the members of the co-operative society at prices allowing for a reasonable profit on the shares held by the members themselves.

These three organizations—the bank, the Farmers' Co-operative society and the fertilizer factory—are in theory independent, though it was made plain that in practice their membership and their directorate overlapped, largely, and that they worked together for mutual advantage.

About ten miles from Cremona, in the village of Soresina, is situated what is presumed to be the largest co-operative dairy in the world, handling the products of 4000 cows. Here every single by-product was being fully utilized. The main product of the factory was soft cheese, but this was supplemented by the making of skimm milk butter and milk sugar. Finally the milkings were fed to hogs.

As to the financial results, there is a general law in Italy which lays down that in the case of co-operative societies no shareholder shall receive a dividend greater than 5 per cent, but the members of this dairy were receiving 30 per cent. The explanation is that ten years after the formation of the society all the share capital was paid off, after which all the buildings and machinery were paid for. Now there are no shareholders receiving dividends, but simply members, among whom the annual profits are divided as a bonus. But if this annual bonus be reckoned as a dividend on the original value of members' shares, it amounts to 30 per cent.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

Switzerland Man Says it Has Worked in His Country With Good Results.

Portland, Ore., June 30.—The initiative and referendum have worked in Switzerland for many years and still operates without justifying the sinister predictions of theorists who prophesied dangerous consequences if that form of legislation were adopted, according to P. de Rougemont of Neuchâtel, Switzerland, during an address on "Direct Democracy in Switzerland," before the World's Christian Citizen's conference in convention here. He said, in part:

"Of course it is very difficult to know how it would have been if the referendum or initiative had not been working, but

TRADE TRIP IN WACO

ROTARIANS PLAN A VISIT TO THE FACTORIES LOCATED IN THIS TOWN.

Business Men to Call on Fellow Citizens to Get Acquainted and Learn Conditions.

The plan of spending a day in the factories of the city in an effort to get better acquainted with the men and conditions, is being considered by the Rotary club. The idea was presented at the regular weekly luncheon of the members at the New State House yesterday.

Col. Abe Gross, who made the suggestion, said that it would be of mutual benefit to the factories and the club in a better understanding of conditions on the part of the members and in the co-operation that they would assure the industries. The idea was to see if there is any possible way in which the club might be able to render assistance to the factories and of making the Rotarians more conversant with the manufacturing interests of the city.

The suggestion was generally discussed in an informal way and received the hearty approval of those present. A committee was appointed by President A. H. Bell to take the matter in charge and formulate a detailed plan to be reported on next Monday. Abe Gross was appointed chairman of the committee and W. V. Crawford, Henry Munterlyn, Louis Crow and J. N. Clements, as associates.

Those present at the luncheon yesterday were: A. H. Bell, C. H. Cox, J. N. Clements, W. V. Crawford, L. Friedman, H. I. Furman, Abe Gross, L. H. Henry, W. D. Lacy, Dr. D. H. Lanham, J. A. Loughbridge, J. J. Powers, C. E. Sneed, E. H. Reed, J. J. Owens, Louis Crow, Edward Tobey, Dick Smith and Henry Munterlyn.

This trade trip will be made to all concerns.

It will be a personal visit of business men to the factories of their fellow citizens.

TO REPAIR TEHUACANA BRIDGE

Supt. R. J. Windrow Will Start Work on Span on Marlin Road.

Under the supervision of R. J. Windrow, county road superintendent, workmen began yesterday redecking the steel bridge at the Tehuacana crossing, on the road between Waco and Marlin. The bridge is an 80-foot steel span, with a 156-foot approach on one end and a 58-foot approach at the other end. Five teams were engaged yesterday hauling material to the bridge. The cost of repairs will be about $600 or $700.

The redecking of this bridge is the first big job that has been attempted by the county superintendent's office since the creation of that position.

A special meeting of the county commissioners' court will be held this morning to provide for the salary of the county superintendent.

DISCUSS FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Appropriation for Decoration at Cotton Palace Double That of Last Year—More Lights Keynote—May Increase Exhibition Grounds—Larger Poultry Dept.

Directors of the Cotton Palace met at the Chamber of Commerce last night to consider the appropriations recommended by the committee on finance, and other matters concerning preparations for this year's fair.

Provisions were made for the erection of a new poultry building and the sentiment of the directors is that much emphasis ought to be placed on this exhibit.

Probation officer to have custody over delinquent children, and minors who have come within the care of the law, as provided in a bill passed by the legislature and effective today, will in all probability be appointed in McLennan county.

County Judge George N. Denton, in reviewing the list of new laws passed by the recent legislature, yesterday took under consideration that which provides for a county probation officer.

In the capacity of judge of the juvenile court Judge Denton has come in contact with dozens of instances where the influence and care of a probation officer would prove a benefit. He seems greatly in favor of the new law, and favors the inauguration of the plans for caring for the delinquent children, as outlined in the bill, in McLennan county.

That portion of the law, which governs the appointment of the officer in counties the size of McLennan reads: "In counties of 3,500 to 100,000 population on probation officer may be appointed by the county judge. The county judge shall select such probation officer from a list of three furnished by a nominating committee composed of three members, as follows: the county superintendent of public instruction, and the two largest independent school districts in such county."

The law further provides that the salary of the officer should be not to exceed $1,200 per annum, and expenses of $200 per year. The law vests the officer with all powers and authority of police or sheriff to make arrests and perform all other duties incident to his office.

Under that section of the law which places the nomination of the man to be appointed probation officer in McLennan county within the hands of a committee of three, this committee would be composed of County Superintendent of Education R. I. Abbott, City Superintendent of Waco Schools J. C. Lattimore and either the superintendent of the West or McGregor schools. Mar is the largest independent school district in the county with the exception of Waco, but that district has no superintendent.

In discussing the matter Judge Denton was greatly in favor of the plan. He said his idea was to have a probation officer to be paid $65 to $75 per month, and the remainder of the amount up to $100 be used to join the city in employing a woman matron. He believed the need of both a man and woman officer of this kind in the county was great and that district officers to assist in the employment of both a man and woman.

Besides the paid probation officer, the law empowers the county judge to appoint any number of probation officers to serve without pay.

TOM MOTZ IS VISITOR HERE

Former Waco Boy Is Building Railroads in Spanish Honduras. Rich Country.

Tom Motz was in Waco yesterday and during his stay in the city spent much time shaking hands with friends and receiving congratulations on the success he is making in Central America.

Tom Motz was reared in Waco. As a boy here he was a school mate of the men of affairs of today in Waco, and they remember the association of boyhood days. He is now living in Central America and is engaged in railroad building for American capital in Spanish Honduras.

"Contracts call for the construction of about a thousand miles of railroad," said Chief Engineer Motz who has the work in charge. "I think it a safe estimate to say that not less than $25,000,000 is being put into development. The country is building up rapidly and I expect to see it one of the richest countries on the American continent. In addition to the thousand miles of railroad, wharves and shipping facilities are being constructed."

and the necessity for more room. No definite proposition has been accepted, but the acquisition of adjoining property is being held under advisement.

Excursions will be made by boosters of the Cotton Palace to the Falls County Fair at Marlin and to the Mart Fair, President W. H. Hoffmann will appoint a committee within the next few days to work out the plans. Season tickets for the Palace will be at the same price as last year and the committee was instructed to put them on sale as soon as possible. Season tickets will cost $4, with a one dollar reduction to stockholders, and a price to children of $1.50 for those under twelve years of age.

The finance committee, whose report was discussed and adopted with some amendments by the directors, had a meeting in the afternoon to conclude the amounts recommended. Members of the committee are: W. J. Neale, chairman; L. Mikel, E. W. Marshall and W. W. Cameron.

The following were present at the meeting last night: W. H. Hoffmann, president; S. N. Mayfield, secretary; L. Mikel, E. F. Drake, C. H. Cox, I. Friedlander and T. P. Duncan.

RIGGINS IS GUEST OF RICE

Houston Chronicle Writes About Him As the Man Who "Came Back."

(Houston Chronicle.) A guest of the management of the Rice hotel, J. W. Riggins is in Houston from Waco to make a study of interior hotel decorations. What he finds out will be utilized in connection with the 10-story hotel which he is now building in Waco, to be known as the Riggins.

Mr. Riggins, hotel builder, sometimes referred to as an empire builder, is best known in Waco as the man who "came back." Following a strenuous political career in Waco, after serving as mayor during stormy periods, Mr. Riggins came to Houston and engaged in business for a time. He prospered here, but Waco was his first love and he eventually returned there to establish the Riggins Investment company.

Recently he conceived the notion that Waco needed a new hotel. Single handed he set out to finance the deal. In St. Louis, the home of the Frisco collapse, he secured the necessary money. It was then that Riggins "came back." When the train reached Hillsboro on the return trip a delegation boarded it. Mr. Riggins began to wonder what his man was on board. Then his friends and neighbors told him that he was the man in whose honor the celebration was being held.

At the home station there were about 5,000 people, many of them in automobiles, and a triumphal procession was staged in honor of Riggins, the man who came back to build the hotel. It will be a banquet and the notables of Texas will be invited to visit Waco and take part in the festivities.

The Riggins will be a 10-story structure with 225 rooms, all modern and fire proof. It is being erected by the Westlake Construction company which recently finished the Rice in this city and is to be ready for the public next April.

BOND IN THE WILDER CASE

Hearing Is Had in the Bankruptcy Proceedings Before Mc-Cormick.

Appearance bond in the sum of $2,000 in the case of the United States against J. H. Wilder, charged with fraudulently concealing a sum of money for the trustee appointed in the bankruptcy case, and in the sum of $1,000 in the case of W. S. Wilder, charged with perjury in connection with the case, was fixed by United States Commissioner A. P. McCormick yesterday morning.

The case of J. H. Wilder, for preliminary hearing, was set for July 9, and that of W. S. Wilder for July 10. So far neither has furnished bail.

J. H. Wilder is charged in the complaint sworn to by John Maxwell, trustee in bankruptcy, with fraudulently concealing, while a bankrupt, a large sum of money; to-wit, $1,300, from John Maxwell, his trustee, being part of his estate.

W. S. Wilder is charged in the complaint with "making false oath in relation to the bankruptcy proceedings of J. H. Wilder, a bankrupt. Oath being made before T. P. Bryan, referee in bankruptcy."

FAIL TO AWARD CONTRACT

Sladler Makes the Lowest Offer, But Bid Is Considered Ambiguous.

Owing to ambiguity in the wordings of bids to build the new pumping plant for the city at Vermont and River streets, no award was made by the city water commission, when the bids were opened at a called meeting of the board last night. But two bids were made.

C. H. Sladler's bid was $21,790, apparently following specifications, which call for No. 1 face brick; and $22,265, if denton selected brick are used. J. E. Harriman & Son bid $23,291, specifications followed.

Sladler failed to state in his bid whether or not he has based his estimate on No. 1 face brick. It was pointed out by several of the commissioners that selected brick in some instances is better than No. 1 face.

MEMORIAL TO JOE MAXWELL

His Friends Propose to Erect a Drinking Fountain in Memory of Popular Man.

Friends of the late Joseph W. Maxwell have started a movement to erect a memorial to him and M. L. Epstein and W. V. Galbreath of Fort Worth, Royal A. Ferris of Dallas, John F. Lehane and R. S. Legate of Tyler are a committee to bring about the collection of the fund.

"Joe" Maxwell, as he was known all over Texas, was for many years general superintendent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, and after that occupied the same position with the Cotton Belt. While he lived for a time in Dallas, most of his days in Texas were spent in Denison and Tyler. He was well liked by all who knew him, genial, good natured, hale fellow well met. In the notice of the movement, the committee said:

"It is the consensus of opinion that an appropriate mark of remembrance would be the erection of a drinking fountain in the public square in Tyler or Denison, such fountain to be presented to the city in which it would be located."

W. W. Soley of Waco is one of the contributors to the memorial fund, and there will be others who knew Mr. Maxwell well.

Membership Meeting.
The annual membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Ambleside building. Officers and standing committees will be elected.

France has over 4,150,000 women workers.
